

He is back ...
and you are invited to spend some time with Detective Nkomba!

Enter the Word Warrior 2021 Competition NOW!

WORD WARRIOR COMPETITION 2021

We are calling all budding journalists, tv broadcasters, radio presenters and talk show hosts – this is your chance to interview Detective Nkomba and uncover the man behind all the mysteries.

Show us the end result of your in-depth interview in a written piece of no longer than three pages.

Use the following as a guide:

1. Set the scene: are you a talk show host, a tv journalist or an investigating journalist?
2. Introduce yourself and your guest to your audience;
3. Show us through an intensive question and answering session how you uncover the truths, the unknown and the interesting facts about Detective Nkomba;
4. Summarise and conclude your interview.

REMEMBER:

- Use your imagination and create an interview that you will be interested in reading.
- Give your interviewer a personality and voice in your writing.
- Ask open ended questions that the Detective can answer in-depth – and ask questions leading from his answers.
- Have fun with the topic – explore real, made-up, current or historic events – all up to you.

You can use the following template as a guide:

SCENARIO: Award winning investigating journalist, Ntombi Tlaka, has secured an interview with Detective Nkomba just before the start of Pappa D, Mafia Boss Supreme's, court case over the alleged bribery and corruption of the Fruit and Vegetable Committee of the Forest. The interview is being conducted in a secure venue in the forest.

INTRODUCTION:

Good evening, this is Forty Minutes in the Forest with Ntombi Tlaka. This evening we have the privileged to spend time with Detective Nkomba, the man that uncovered

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS:

Ntombi: Detective Nkomba, when did you realise you are dealing with dangerous and devious people?

Detective Nkomba: Ntombi, I always rely on my stomach to tell me if something is wrong or if it is right.

NT: Your stomach?!

DN: When I have this uneasy feeling, I know – look further, something is not right. And I had this feeling from the start. I just knew. So, I listened to my stomach and I questioned what I saw and what I was told. Fruit cannot get up and walk away on its own, someone must be helping ...

NT: And you knew where to look. How did that happen?

SUMMARY

AND CLOSURE:

What an incredible journey with our own Detective Nkomba, a man that will go the extra mile for justice and for the truth. This has been Ntombi Tlaka live from the Forest to your living room.

WIN:
R5000 worth of books for the winning school and R1 000 for the individual winner

Send your letters to:

READ

by 31 October 2021
email: info@read.co.za
or P. O. Box 30994, Braamfontein,
2017

The competition is open to learners between the ages of 9 – 16 years.

The interview must not be longer than three A4 pages or four A5 pages. Write your name, your age, your contact details, your school's name, followed by the contact number of the school and your teacher's name at the end of the letter.

READ

EDUCATIONAL TRUST
www.read.org.za

